

Countdown to your Disney vacation

Here are some fun activities you can do leading up to your magical vacation

- Have a Disney Tea Party (from Alice in Wonderland) with your favorite tea and cookies
- Make some Mickey shaped cookies and have a cookie decorating party
- Plan your daily schedules to the Disney Theme Parks
- Watch a Disney Classic Movie (Don't forget the popcorn)
- Color pictures of your favorite Disney Characters (Crayola.com)
- For older kids, purchase the Nintendo Game called Disney Infinity
- For older kids or teens, purchase the fun book call Kingdom Keepers about Magic Kingdom and the other theme parks after dark
- Watch Disney Theme Park Videos
- Check out Disney Junior online - lots of activities for kids
- Make Mickey Mouse Ears (Size a piece of paper around your head, cut out two black circles, and paste them onto your paper strip for ears)
- Have a Pirate Dinner with a scavenger hunt to hunt for clues and exciting details about your upcoming trip
- Get some Disney books from your local bookstore or library and read a new Disney book every night
- Purchase your favorite Disney music CD to play in the car
- Go online to Disney Store and purchase a Disney Princess dress for your little one (at a less expensive price that Disneyland dresses) to wear to meet her favorite Princess.
- For boys, you can buy pirate costumes to meet Captain Jack Sparrow at the Pirates of the Caribbean ride.
